A Remarkable Toad.

In Surinam there is a remarkable toadlike creature, the female of which carries the young in a series of cells in the thick skin of the back, which assumes a strange honeycombed appearance.

When this lady toad is carrying her nursery about with her, she is a very repulsive looking object. Single handed she would be quite unable to cope with the important question of placing eggs where they will be most favorably disposed for hatching, and for this she has to rely on the good services of her mate.

Soon after the eggs are laid they are taken up by the male and pressed, one by one, into the cells in the thickened skin of his partner's back. There they grow until they fit closely to the hexagonal form of their prisons, each of which is closed above by a kind of trapdoor.

After a period of some 32 days the eggs reach their full development and produce, not tadpoles, but actually perfect little toads. The reason of this is that the tadpoles, which require to breathe the air dissolved in the water by means of their external gills, could not exist in the cells, and consequently this stage of development is passed through very rapidly within the egg. In due time the young toads to the number of 50 or 100 burst open the lids of their cells, put out their noses and make their entrance into the world. The mother toad rubs off the remains of the cells against any convenient stone or plant stem and comes out in a brand new spring outfit.—Knowledge.

Use of Ginseng in China.

In China ginseng is often sent to friends as a valuable present, and in such cases there is usually presented along with the drug a small finely finished double kettle for its preparation.

The inner kettle is made of silver, and between it and the outside copper vessel is a small space for holding water. The silver kettle fits in a ring near the top of the outer covering and is furnished with a cuplike cover, in which rice is put, with a little water. The ginseng is placed in the inner vessel, the cover put on and the whole apparatus set on the fire. When the rice in the cover is cooked, the medicine is ready and is eaten by the patient, who drinks the ginseng tea at the same time.

The dose of the root is from 60 to 90 grains. During the use of the drug ten drinking is prohibited for at least a month, without any other change of diet. It is taken in the morning before breakfast and sometimes in the evening before going to bed.—Chambers' Journal.

A Man and His Wife.

Again, on the underground railway a little while ago a man and woman got into the carriage. He was snarling at every one—the guard, the porters, the newspaper boy and a passenger whose foot he kicked getting into the carriage.

"The woman was a little thin and pale, and I fancy all the passengers were sorry for her and thought she must have a very bad time of it. Presently she spoke to the man. She said, 'When shall we reach Richmond?' He said, 'We shall be home inside 40 minutes.' That was all, but voice, look, manner were absolutely kind and tender. The whole man changed when he spoke to his wife. A brute to every one else, he was a lover to her. Lucky woman! Every one would have loved her but herself and her hated every one but her. What more could she want? As for the other passengers I think they went home singing, because they had seen love.—New Budget.

Point Judith.

It was colonial day at the Professional Woman's league and Miss Emma Tuttle Lewis, who is a descendant of the Puritans, in an interesting talk on the subject said: 'An ancestor of mine, one Judith Hull, was responsible for the name of Point Judith. She was a sould, in fact a regular shrew, and kept the whole town in which she lived in a broil one-third of the time. So it came to pass that the little peninsula that puts out from Rhode Island and creates such disturbance in the waters of the sound and proves so trying and often disastrous to the seamen and landsmen alike was called Point Judith in honor of the human prototype. It wasn't exactly honorable at the time, but after all these years we regard it so.'—New York World.

Publisher and Authors.

I remember, a little while before the death in the hunting field of that delightful companion and brilliant gentleman, Whyte Melville, a publisher said to me one day, 'Ah, you know, if your books sold like Melville's, we could afford to give you as long prices as we give to him.' The publisher was not aware that I and Whyte Melville were friends. The latter, however, came to dine with me a few evenings later, and I told him what had been said. He stared, laughed and pulled his long Auburn mustache. 'Well, by Jove, that's droll!' he said, with much amusement. 'If the fellow didn't tell me last week that if my books sold like yours he could pay me double and treble!'—Ouida in North American Review.

HOUSEKEEPERS

who are delicate, run-down, or overworked, and those who suffer from backache, headache, dragging-down sensations in the abdomen, and many other symptoms of derangement of the female functions can find renewed strength and health by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For the pains and aches, the periods of melancholy and sleeplessness, nothing can do you so much permanent good as this vegetable compound. You save the doctor's fee, as well as your modesty, by purchasing this 'Prescription' of Dr. R. V. Pierce. For a great many years Dr. R. V. Pierce, a consulting physician and specialist in the 'Invalid's' Hotel, and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., made from his large experience he was able to compound a 'Prescription' which acted directly upon the special internal parts of women. When in doubt as to your ailment write him, it will cost you nothing. A Book, on Woman and Her Diseases, published by the 'Woman's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., is sent free to all women. It will be sent for ten cents in stamps.

When women are afflicted with nervousness, irritability, nervous prostration or exhaustion and sleeplessness, in nine cases out of ten the source of the trouble is some displacement, irregularity or derangement of the special internal parts. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures permanently such cases as well as that distressing internal discharge, from the mucous membrane, inflammation and ulceration.

Brooklyn, Jackson Co., Mich. Gentlemen—I am more than willing to say your most valuable medicine has cured me of my weakness and a catarrhal discharge from the lining membrane of the special parts. I suffered for years with pain in my back, never a treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I could not sleep on a mattress; it seemed as though it were a bed of nails. Since taking the medicine I can sleep anywhere. I am now well. I would not be placed in my former condition for any money. Gladly yours, Mrs. J. H. Barker

THE MORMON CHURCH IN POLITICS.

It has become known in Utah that the Mormon priesthood is taking a very active part in politics. The Herald, which is edited by a descendant of Brigham Young, declares that at a priesthood meeting held last week and attended by the First Presidency, the Apostles, the Quorum of Seventies and the Presidents of the Stakes and their counselors, two candidates on the Democratic ticket, who are officials in the Mormon Church, were condemned because they accepted nominations from a political party without first consulting the church dignitaries. The Herald knows what it means to have candidates strongly condemned in the priesthood meeting of the Mormon Church in Utah, and it gives the alarm. It says it is better, now that this issue has been raised, that it be settled before Utah becomes a State, than to meet it when Statehood becomes a reality.

It now seems probable that an effort will be made at the polls to defeat the constitution and thus prevent Utah from becoming a State. Judge O. W. Powers, who has been one of the leaders of the Liberal party in Utah, and now Chairman of the Democratic Territorial Committee, is disposed to call a convention to consider the propriety of withdrawing the Democratic ticket, disbanding the party and advising the voters of Utah to oppose the constitution and to favor a Territorial form of government until they are certain that all the people of the Territory will be free to act politically as their judgment and consciences dictate. Every man in Utah, he argues, must have the fullest freedom of political action, and no ecclesiastical authority can be allowed in any degree to meddle with political affairs.

The Argus, a Republican paper, says much as it desires a Republican victory, it nevertheless openly declares that it much prefers defeat than that victory should be tainted with even the suspicion of Mormon Church control or dictation.

George M. Cannon, Chairman of the Republican Committee, says he knows nothing of church influence being exerted in behalf of the Republicans, though he believes his party has the best of the fight. He thinks the rumor that the church was interfering was a subterfuge of the Democracy.

The Republicans claim that in the last campaign the church officials in their party who took active part in politics had the permission of the church to do so, but in the present campaign permission to engage in politics was not sought nor granted.

Cannon, one of the Apostles, is said to be a candidate for United States Senator from Utah and if he is and can use the power of the church on his side he will be very likely to do it.

It appears that the campaign has developed into a church war instead of a political contest. No party that is opposed by the Mormon Church can succeed in Utah. It may carry some of the principal towns and a few of the mining counties, but a majority of the people of the Territory are Mormons and with few exceptions will support the candidates which the church endorses. The Gentiles of Utah seemed to have understood that and clung to the Liberal party, which was opposed to the Church party, until the Mormons in the last election indicated that they would divide on National political lines and vote for candidates regardless of what church they attended. It appears that they have not kept faith in this matter and the consequence will be a large vote against the constitution, though not enough to defeat it, and a protest against the admission of Utah as a State.

ENTHUSIASTIC GOLDBUGS.

The Massachusetts Reform Club at Boston gave an ovation to Secretary Carlisle Saturday night. President Hale of the Club said they are Democrats with Grover Cleveland and Republicans with Edmunds and Sherman, implying, of course, that the Club has no politics. Secretary Carlisle was the principal speaker and asserted that the business men of Boston needed no instruction upon the subject of sound currency, and they deserved the thanks of the whole country for having put party politics aside in their honest efforts to uphold the National Administration, for the government and prevent the depreciation of its currency. He spoke of the action of Boston bankers in depositing four millions in gold in the national treasury to replenish the vanishing reserve, and the patriotism of the Chamber of Commerce in calling a special meeting and requesting Senators and Representatives from Massachusetts to lay aside all questions of party advantage and assist the Administration when the enemies of the public credit were denouncing it for its conduct of its finances.

Mr. Carlisle assured the Bostonians that the persistent and aggressive agitation in favor of free coinage has substantially ceased and that no well informed man believes that the financial policy which has been steadily pursued by the present Administration will be abandoned.

That Mr. Carlisle had an appreciative audience was manifested by the goblets that were emptied and the cheers that resounded through the hall. The members of the Club through their President admitted that they had no politics, except to maintain the gold standard, and Mr. Carlisle complimented them for laying aside all party feeling and standing with the Administration when it was managed by the enemies of the public credit.

It appears that in Boston, which is the home of insurance companies and kindred corporations, the members of the Reform Club are as strong advocates of the gold standard as the Rothschilds. They profit by it, believe in it because they find it profitable, and with that spirit of liberty and tolerance for which gold men are noted, denounce those who differ from them as enemies of the public credit. They claim and receive applause for exchanging a few millions in gold for money that answered their every purpose just as well, and they are landed as greater patriots for assisting England in fastening the single standard yoke on the country than the Boston men of a century ago who dumped a cargo of ten tons of the harbor to show their disapprobation of the Stamp Act.

THE SITUATION IN KENTUCKY.

Senator Blackburn stated in Washington last week that there is no doubt whatever of the outcome in Kentucky. There never has been since the nominations for members of the Legislature any danger of his defeat for re-election. Hardin will also be elected Governor, in fact there are not gold men enough in the State to defeat him. Carlisle understands the situation in Kentucky and gives the State a wide berth. He cannot as a cabinet member of what is nominally a Democratic Administration go into Kentucky and advocate the election of the Republican ticket so he keeps away from the State altogether.

Senator Blackburn denounces the Louisville papers for misrepresenting the situation in the State. The Administration organs do it for the purpose of creating the impression that Kentucky is not for free coinage, and the Republican papers do it because Bradley, the party candidate for Governor, is an advocate of the single gold standard and stands on a platform that is unequivocally against free silver.

AGAINST THE FIGHT.

GOVERNOR CLARKE WILL NOT ALLOW IT.

If He Does Not Stop the Fight He Says That He Will Resign.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., October 14.—Governor Clarke in an interview said: "I do not care to discuss the matter any further, but I will say, as I have said before, that there shall be no more prize fights at Hot Springs. The authorities at Hot Springs have practically admitted that they will be unable to prevent the fight. This leaves the matter in my hands. It is a question now as to who is the higher authority in this State, the Governor or a couple of prize fighters and those in favor of their meeting. If there is no law to stop the fight in any other way except by the use of military force, I shall do that. You may say for me that if I do not stop the fight I will resign my office and let those who believe in prize fighting run the State Government. But there will be no prize fight at Hot Springs."

AUSTIN, Texas, October 14.—The Supreme Court to-day handed down an opinion in the cases of the tax collectors of Williamson and Hayes counties, seeking to force the Comptroller to issue them a prize fight license under the law passed at the regular session of the Legislature last spring. The court declines to mandamus the Comptroller on the ground that the special session of the Legislature nullified all previous laws on the subject by passing a new law, making prize fighting a felony.

California Miners Meet.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—The Fourth Annual Convention of the California Miners' Association met this morning. About 400 were present when the Convention was called to order by President Neff in a brief address. Hugh Craig of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce made an address of welcome, in which he said that the State and city owe a debt of gratitude to the miners, who laid the foundation of our commonwealth. A Committee on Credentials, consisting of one delegate from each county, was named by the Chair and the convention took a recess until the afternoon.

A Heavy Storm.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—Private advices received to-day from Guaymas, dated October 13th, say that the Mexican schooner Cometa is a total loss at Altamira, fifteen miles from Altata. The captain was drowned and the crew saved. The steamer Diago lost her rudder and stern post on the Altata bar and is now repairing in La Paz. Sixteen Mexican coasting vessels and the schooner Czar are ashore. In La Paz 184 houses were destroyed by storm and rain. Five lives were lost.

Another Durrant Juror in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—C. R. Brodenstein applied for a warrant for the arrest of Juror Smythe of the Durrant case to-day. The charge is that he assaulted Brodenstein's boy. The latter was sitting on Smythe's fence. Smythe, it is alleged, struck the boy on the back with a cane, inflicting serious injuries. The police are afraid the incident may delay the Durrant trial.

A Fight to the Death.

SEATTLE, Wash., October 14.—As a result of an attempt to arrest John Connor for the alleged robbery of Banford Bonser, a sailor, while in Daniel McNamara's saloon, Policeman John Corbett is lying at the point of death at the Providence Hospital, his body covered with knife wounds. Connor is dying from a bullet wound from the policeman's pistol. In jail are Bonser, with knife wounds in his hands, held as a witness, and McNamara with a bullet wound in his arm. Connor stabbed the policeman and the sailor. Corbett shot the suspected thief and the saloon keeper. The policeman has fourteen bad wounds. His nose is almost slashed off, he has a deep wound in the abdomen and others all over the body. As Connor ran out of the door to escape, the policeman shot him in the back.

The Closing Scenes in the Durrant Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—The thirteenth week of the Durrant trial will commence with the opening of court to-morrow, there being no session to-day to accommodate the business men on the jury. It is believed that both sides will close their testimony before the week is out. The closing scenes of this most famous criminal trial in the annals of California are being watched with keen interest. Durrant, in his testimony, is considered to have made a bold stroke for freedom. The prosecution, however, believes it can produce testimony in rebuttal that will sufficiently strengthen that introduced in the opening of the case to tear the veil from the youthful defendant's very plausible account of his movements on the afternoon of April 3d.

A Disappointment.

Nearly 2,000 people gathered on Commercial Row last night, expecting to hear a short address from Mrs. Ballington Booth of the Salvation Army. They waited patiently for the train, but when it arrived Captain Ames announced that Mrs. Booth had not been notified of the arrangement that she was to speak in Reno and had retired. The people turned away and one could hear expressions of disappointment on every hand.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR MILLARD is in a very critical condition at Shasta Springs, California. If he rallies so that he can be moved without endangering his life he will be taken to southern California.

DIED.

REALTOR.—Near Reno, Oct. 13, 1895, Doris Realitor, aged 34 years, 5 months and 8 days, a native of Oregon.
[The funeral will take place from the Baptist Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Friends and acquaintances are invited.]
TREAT.—In Elko, Nevada, October 10, 1895, Jonah D. Treat, a native of Connecticut, aged 64 years.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value of the "Embraced" in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.
Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.
Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

RENO PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Report and Honor Rolls for the Month Ending October 5, 1895.

To the Honorable Board of School Trustees—GENTLEMEN:—I herewith respectfully submit my report for the school month ending October 5, 1895.

ENROLLMENT.

The total enrollment was 578 as against 562 at the same date last year. Miss Joy's room is rather crowded and it may be necessary to make some change in the classification to relieve her. Some of the rooms might readily accommodate more pupils.

VERTICAL WRITING.

Our experience with Vertical Writing in the lower grades has been most encouraging. The pupils learn it more easily than they did the slanting system, and plainer, neater writing is the result. Through permission of the State Superintendent given two years ago, we are now using this system of writing in the first four grades of the Reno public schools. Comparing the writing in these grades now, by means of books on file, with what it was prior to the introduction of this system, we find a definite improvement.

I have seen something of its practice in city schools from the Atlantic to the Pacific and the results everywhere have been regarded as gratifying. It is rapidly winning favor in nearly all the large cities, and the Normal schools in many States have adopted it, the Normal students as well as the pupils in the attached Training schools all using it exclusively.

"Jane."

Gustave Frohman's brilliant success, "Jane," will occupy the boards at McKissick's Opera House next Friday evening. The company presenting "Jane" is one of the greatest merit, as the name of Frohman would suggest. Mr. Frohman has an enviable reputation for handling only the most legitimate attractions and "Jane" is no exception to the rule. Adapted from the French, "Jane" possesses all the elements of bright, sparkling wit and refined humor always found in those successes produced in the gay capital of our sister republic, and "Jane" has the advantage over them all that there is no risqué situation and nothing in the line of double entendres.

A BIG MINING DEAL

The Buckeye Mines Near Pine Nut Bring a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

The owners of the Buckeye placer mines sold their interest to the firm of Lane, Hayward and Hobart on Saturday. The consideration was nearly $250,000. The mine is situated about twelve miles from the Pine Nut district and was owned principally by the Raycraft brothers of Carson. A number of other Carson people are interested in the mine. The owners have demonstrated the value of their discovery with such limited capital and facilities of working it as they had and the buyers are fully convinced that they have secured a valuable property. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be expended in bringing water to the district, the lack of which has been a serious drawback to the successful working of the mines located there. The sale of this mine to these men means great prosperity for Pine Nut and conservative men give it as their opinion that it marks a period of prosperity for Western Nevada. Every branch of business will feel the benefit and the day of rejoicing is not far distant. Carson is overjoyed and her leading men believe that the sale is the best thing that has happened for that town in years. What helps Carson helps the balance of Western Nevada, and while congratulations are in order for our sister town, the neighboring towns can hope that they will share in the coming prosperity to a considerable extent.

Retiring From Business.

Owing to the demand of his attention to other business interests with which Mr. Hyman Fredrick has become connected in California, he has decided to close out his business in Reno. He regrets being compelled to leave a community where he has lived for so many years but the demand of his presence elsewhere makes it necessary. In view of this he is desirous of closing out his business as a whole or will sell at retail his entire stock of watches, jewelry, silverware, etc., at surprisingly low figures. His time is limited and in order to close out as quickly as possible no reasonable offer will be refused. For a dealer in the line, or any one desiring to go into business, he will give special inducements to purchase a well established store. To those wishing a fine gold watch, or any thing in the jewelry line, he will give prices never before known in Reno, and the excellence of his stock cannot be questioned. He must close out by January 1st and sooner if possible, so now is the time to get bargains. Read his big ad. in to-day's issue.

W. T. Mead and R. L. Wright of San Francisco; A. R. Wright, Wells; F. D. Noble and wife and J. H. Felley, Amedee, and H. F. Green, Cedarville, were guests at the Hotel Reno last evening.

A. J. Moulder, Superintendent of Public Schools in San Francisco, died in that city yesterday of pneumonia. He was a prominent educator, and he defeated C. S. Young, formerly of Nevada, for School Superintendent.

Lieutenant W. R. Hamilton of the Fifth United States Artillery and detailed as special Military Instructor at the Nevada State University, has commenced an article in the Sunday Examiner in which he pictures San Francisco at the mercy of a foreign foe. It is to be printed in three parts and will give a military man's ideas of how San Francisco might be captured and what is necessary for its defense.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this remedy for coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Hodgkinson's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys, will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby adding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c. per bottle at Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

A Good Cure.

Let any victim of the liquor habit eat tomatoes sprinkled with salt, consuming as much each day as possible. Let the eating of tomatoes and salt to excess be continued for several days, and the person will find liquor offensive, and if drank will be ungrateful to the stomach, and will be thrown up. This is the cheapest gold cure yet heard of and it is said to be very effective.

My Sweetheart.

Her cheeks are like the roses,
Her brow is lily white;
And I know the reason,
She takes Parks' Tea each night.
She's strong and well and happy, too,
Her face is clear and bright,
And laughingly she tells the cause,
"I take Parks' Tea each night."

Scrofula From Birth

Other Medicines Utterly Failed.
But Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.
"Some time since, our boy then four years old was in the hands of the family doctor for treatment for scrofula. He had been afflicted with this trouble from birth and we had been unable to give him
Only Temporary Relief.
We decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla and are glad to say 8 bottles of Hood's entirely cured him. Our oldest daughter has been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for rheumatism with good results. We have used from first to last some $10 worth of the medicine and have received the equivalent of several hundred dollars' worth of doctor's treatment and good health to boot. We cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. It is all that is claimed for it." C. E. MYERS, Winona, Kansas.
